

MEET OUR NEW RECTOR

THE REVEREND MARY C. "MIMI" LACY

Mimi Lacy was born and raised in Western Pennsylvania, the eighth of nine children. After graduating from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a BS in Medical Technology, she worked in Clinical Chemistry and as a technical representative for a biomedical company, where she met her future husband Tom.

After graduating from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in 2001, Mimi was the Associate Rector at St. Andrew's Church in Downers Grove, IL. She has been the Rector at St. Timothy's in Greenville, NC for the past eight years.

Tom was born in Montgomery, AL, and grew up in the south, claiming Atlanta as "home". He graduated from Florida State University with a BS in Biology and has spent his career in the biomedical industry.

The Reverend Mimi and Tom Lacy will be joining Emmanuel on All Saints Day, November 1, 2015.
